UniCredit Bank issued mini-bonds for as many as three companies -
Brigate, Unipromet, Eye Hospital Professional Dr. Suvajac

Belgrade, 29.12.2025. - The trend of successful issuance of mini-bonds continues, UniCredit Bank enabled the issuance of mini-bonds for as many as three companies with different portfolios and from different branches of industry. The companies in question are Eye Hospital Profesional Dr Suvajac, Brigade and Unipromet. With this strategically important step, UniCredit Bank's role as a leader in providing innovative financial solutions on the domestic market has been further strengthened.

UniCredit Bank, as part of one of the leading financial groups in Europe, actively contributes to the development of the capital market in Serbia by supporting companies that want to use market mechanisms to finance their growth and business improvement.

The financing of the Eye Hospital Profesional Dr. Suvajac in the amount of 470 million dinars is intended for the construction of an eye clinic in New Belgrade, which is of strategic importance for this company and represents the basis of its business in the future. The company Brigade will use the issuance of mini-bonds in the amount of 350 million dinars in the direction of financing future projects through the flexibility made possible by this, while the funds in the amount of 470 million dinars to the company Unipromet are intended for diversification of sources of financing and further consolidation of business.

Mini bonds represent an alternative way of financing that allows companies to access capital under more favorable conditions, while offering investors the opportunity to invest in the real economy and the development of local businesses. UniCredit Bank once again confirms that it is actively working on the development of the domestic capital market, by encouraging new instruments and financing models that contribute to the growth of the Serbian economy.
