

Request to block a user account on the Digital Documentation Exchange Platform

Digital Documentation Exchange Platform for exchanging and signing digital documentation for legal entities (hereinafter: Platform) implies secure, closed channel to support communication with the Bank's clients - legal entities, as well as for commenting, i.e. the exchange of documentation signed with the appropriate Qualified Electronic Certificate and all in accordance With the Law on Electronic Document, Electronic Identification and Trust Services in Electronic Business ("Official Gazette of RS", no. 94/2017 and 52/2021) and other regulations that regulate this area.

(here it is necessary to enter the name of the legal entity within which the right to use the Platform is to be granted to End Users)

Client Name:

Social security number:

Place and address:

By submitting and signing a request to block the user account on the Platform, the legal representative of the User gives an order to the Bank to block the user account of the End Users listed in the table below on the Platform. After the blockade implemented by the Bank, the End Users will be disabled previously granted rights as well as access to the Platform.

List of end users for whom it is necessary to block the user account on the Platform for exchanging and signing digital documentation

Name and surname	Activity	ID number	Phone number	Email

Place and date:

For the Client seal and signature: