UniCredit Bank extended the initiative „Gather the Team“ until the end of November

Promotional campaign “Gather the Team”, better known as “Super transfer”, which UniCredit Bank launched at the beginning of this year, was extended due to the huge interest of clients. Therefore all clients of UniCredit Bank, which until November 30th 2014 recommend to their friends to open an account in this bank, will receive MasterCard gift card in the amount of RSD 2,000.

Clients will be able to recommend maximum 5 friends for opening the account and thereby to be awarded with total amount up to RSD 10,000. In order to participate in this action and to be eligible for Gift card, it is essential that new clients, in the nearest branch, open an account, on which their salary/pension will be transferred and at the same time, to bring the "Coupon for a friend" which contains the number of account of client who recommended them.

Besides Gift cards, for both participants of this promotional action, existing and new clients, will be provided additional benefits such as lower interest rates for dinar cash loans, Overdraft and MasterCard Standard Credit card.
