

P r e s s r e l e a s e

Belgrade, December 25th 2015

New winter clothes for children from Svратиšte

With aim to support the youngest and make their holidays more pleasant, UniCredit Bank, with support of Ana and Vlade Divac Foundation, donated for children from Svратиšte, the most needed, new winter clothes and choses, totally worth RSD 500,000. Namely, in two premises of Svратиšte in Belgrade, 150 children age from 5 to 15, spend every day and they would mostly like that this year's Christmas presents contain new worm clothes, from jackets, hats, scarves, gloves, to rubber boots and socks, which enable them to enjoy all winter activities.

During the visit and tour of Svратиšte in Krfska Street, children received gifts and sweets from representatives of the City of Belgrade, Goran Vesic, City Manager and Tanja Popovic, a member of the City Council, Ljiljana Berić, member of Management Board of UniCredit Bank, Ana Divac, president of Management Board of Ana and Vlade Divac Foundation and Mina Lukic, coordinator of Svратиšte. They used this opportunity to socialize with children, talk about their wishes and needs, as well as activities which Svратиšte implements throughout the year, but also the challenges they face in order to provide them with better living conditions.

Ljiljana Berić, member of Management Board at UniCredit Bank stated: "It gives me a great pleasure when I see a smile on the faces of children and feel their positive energy, no matter the fact that their life is not a fairy tale. We need to learn from them how to be happy for small things and to courageously face all adversities. By participating in these activities, the bank is trying to reconfirm the status of a socially responsible citizen and is here to help the vulnerable categories of citizens

Ana Divac, president of Management Board of Ana and Vlade Divac Foundation: "I am happy that with our friends from UniCredit Bank we were able to delight the little ones for New Year and to provide them with a new warm clothes and shoes, as all other children have during these cold days. Ana and Vlade Divac Foundation particularly focus on children, on improving conditions in which they live and learn, especially for children from the most vulnerable social groups."