UniCredit Bank takes you to UEFA Champions League match in Rome

Official Bank of UEFA Club Competitions, UniCredit Bank, launched a quiz via Facebook and in this way enabled connoisseurs of football to win a trip to Italian capital for two persons. Namely, the winner of quiz which runs until November 30th 2015, receives two tickets for UEFA Champions League match which will be played on December 9th on Stadio Olimpico in Rome between Roma and Bate Borisov. The first prize includes covered costs of travel and accommodation.

The quiz is organized on the UniCredit Bank Serbia's official Facebook page and all those who wish to participate must register via application, available on following link: https://apps.facebook.com/nagradni_kvizi/ and have to answer correctly, as fast as possible, to five questions regarding UEFA Club Competitions. The quiz's participant which expresses exceptional knowledge in this field and is placed first in the ranking list, will win the first prize. Each participant has the opportunity to, once a week, participate in quiz and to additionally improve its score. In addition to top-ranked, four of the most successful participants will have the opportunity to win prizes such as Official coin, UEFA Champions League match ball and many others.
