UniCredit Bank Austria provides free master course for string instruments with members of the Wiener Philharmoniker

The fifteenth consecutive time, the Wiener Philharmoniker, with the support of UniCredit Bank Austria, organizes the International Music Forum in Trenta, Slovenia, which every year brings together talented young musicians from all over Europe. Thanks to Professor Alfred Staar, former first violin of the Wiener Philharmoniker, which founded this forum in 2000, young musicians have the opportunity to attend master course for violin, viola, cello and chamber music and a privilege to work and learn from the doyens of this eminent institution. UniCredit Bank Austria, a traditional partner of this music forum, in accordance with its strategy of investing in the development of culture and youth, provides also this year free attendance rate for the most talented strings musicians.

In order register for the free participation in the music forum, which will be held from 1st to 8th August 2015, it is essential that all interested musicians, under 25 years old, submit their curriculum vitae together with an audio tape or CD containing footage of classical and romantic piece (excerpts, about 15 minutes) until April 24th 2015, on one of the following two addresses:
