The team of services according to client's needs with UniCredit Bank's Selector current account

UniCredit Bank implemented a promotional campaign, in which all clients who until May 31st open Selector current account are paying maintenance only RSD 1 until the end of 2015, regardless to which combination of services they choose. Within the current account they will be approved overdraft without interest for amounts up to RSD 12,000.

UniCredit Bank's Selector current account consists of a set of basic banking products and services, such as: dinar current account, foreign currency current account, overdraft, term deposit account, savings account, Maestro debit card and phone service.

Thanks to the combination possibilities, clients have the opportunity to extend their Selector current account at any time with additional services and additional flexibility of this account is reflected in the fact that at any time they can stop using a particular service. Thanks to additional services, the clients can choose to manage their finances via computer by using e-banking or to carry their bank in pocket thanks to improved application for mobile banking - m-banking. In addition, customers can opt for the standing order service, thanks to which the bank based on the client's order performs regular payment of monthly bills, as well as for SMS service that informs them about all the payments on account or SMS Alarm Card which provides them security when using payment cards and allow them to know the amount of funds available at any moment.

Until the end of the year, clients have opportunity to try all services and only after the trial period to choose the ones that they will use. Upon completion of the promotion, the price of the monthly maintenance fee, depending on the choice of additional products and services will range from RSD 149 to RSD 449.
