

P r e s s   r e l e a s e

Belgrade, April 26th 2016

Only few days left to UWIN Best Paper Award submission deadline

Submission deadline for sixth edition of UWIN Best Paper Award on Gender Economics, intended to young economists and researchers, ends on April 30th. Also this year, UniCredit & Universities Foundation will reward authors of two best papers with amount of EUR 5,000 each, and publish their papers in special edition.

Opportunity to apply for the award have all young researches, born after 1980, citizens or currently employed in one of 17 countries where UniCredit is present, among which also Serbia. The right to participate also have interested economists enrolled in doctoral studies of universities or institutions located in above mentioned countries. The application is valid if paper work and all supporting documents are written in English and submitted in PDF format, via application at www.unicreditanduniversities.eu.

For more information about UWIN Best Paper Award please visit www.unicreditanduniversities.eu.

