Start planning your future today – summer internship at UniCredit Bank

In accordance with strategy which involves investing in young people and their professional development, UniCredit Bank is organizing summer internship for graduate students and students of master program in order to motivate ambitious and dynamic young people to gain first practical experience in the field of banking. The internship is intended for students of economics, law, mathematics, information technology, organizational sciences, mechanical and civil engineering, which will be able to for a period of up to two months, from July to September, meet corporate culture and professional work environment of UniCredit Bank. All interested students may, not later than 19 June 2016, send their CV to the email address praksa@unicreditgroup.rs.

Ivana Ivić, Head of HR Department in regards to this, stated: "We invite motivated and ambitious young people to sign up and gain experience that will certainly help them in their professional career. The banking sector is extremely dynamic, requires different skills and it is very important to find young people who can quickly adapt to different tasks. Having in mind our past experience, given that for many years we cherish excellent cooperation with a number of universities, as well as our tendency to extend this cooperation to many others, we have no doubt that the elected candidates will successfully meet all the goals. "
