UniCredit Bank takes you to the round of 16 match of UEFA Champions League

Are you ready to test your football knowledge? If you accept the challenge, you may watch live masters on the field!

UniCredit, as Official Bank of UEFA Club Competitions, is organising a traditional football quiz on its Facebook page which enables connoisseurs of football to watch live one of the matches of the best football clubs qualified for Round of 16 of the most prestigious football club competition. A winner will receive two tickets for the Round of 16 match of UEFA Champions League. The first prize includes covered costs of travel and accommodation.

The quiz is organized on the UniCredit Bank Serbia's official Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/UniCreditBankSrbija> and right to participate have all registered users of this social network in Serbia. Besides laptop and desktop computers, quiz is for the first time available on all mobile devices. All participants need to register and to answer correctly, as fast as possible, to five questions about UEFA Club Competitions. The quiz's participant who answers the fastest on the questions and is placed first on the ranking list, will win the first prize. Besides the main award, for 3 more most successful participants consolation awards are provided, such as Trophy replica and specially designed Official coin for UEFA Champions League matches. UniCredit Bank's football quiz lasts until December 28th.
