Belgrade, April 6th 2017.

Few more days left to apply for the Belgrade Young economists conference

Faculty of Economics University of Belgrade, in cooperation with UniCredit and universities Foundation and UniCredit Bank, seventh consecutive year is organized a two-day international "Young Economists Conference", in order to enable PhD students and those who have recently obtained their Ph.D. to present their research and get detailed feedback from prominent international scientists. On that occasion, UniCredit and universities Foundation will award author of the best paper with EUR 1,500. The conference will be held on June 10th and 11th, and deadline for submissions is April 10th.

UniCredit and universities Foundation and UniCredit Bank have been supporting this conference which provides an incentive to young people in development of their research potential in the field of economy and finance since 2011. Over the past six years, Belgrade was visited by researchers from leading European and American universities, and this year's conference is an integral part of the celebration of the 80th anniversary of the Faculty of Economics in Belgrade.
