Spas Vidarkinsky new member of UniCredit Bank Serbia Management Board

On October 11th, Management Board of UniCredit Bank Serbia has been enlarged by one new member, Spas Vidarkinsky in charge of Corporate and Investment Banking Division (CIB) in Serbia. Spas took over the responsibilities from Enrico Verdoscia who was successfully leading CIB Division from 2014 and who continues his career as CEO at UniCredit Leasing Italy.

Spas started his banking career in 1994 within Operation at First Private Bank AD in Sofia, which he further enriched in Raiffeisenbank within Back Office, Treasury and Investment Department, as well as Sales Department. He joined UniCredit Bulbank in 2002 as Head of Treasury Sales. From 2006 and 2007, he used to be the Head of Corporate and Institutional Sales Department and then, from 2007 and 2009, the Head of Markets Trading and Sales Division. In 2010, Spas Vidarkinsky was appointed as Deputy Head of CIB&PB Division and Head of Markets and Investment Banking Department while, in 2012, he took over the position as Deputy Head of CIB&PB and Head of MID Corporate Department.

In regards to this appointment, Csilla Ihász, CEO of UniCredit Bank Serbia stated: "I am very proud that our Management Board has been further strengthened by Spas Vidarkinsky. His vast knowledge and experience in UniCredit, excellent results both in large and mid-market market, followed by ability to quickly adapt to local market and identify demand will ensure continuation of successful performance of the bank".
