Sandra Vojnović and Nikola Vuletić new members of UniCredit Bank Serbia Management Board

In the first quarter of 2017, Management Board of UniCredit Bank Serbia was extended by two new members, Sandra Vojnović, who is responsible for Strategy and Finance Division and Nikola Vuletić, responsible for Retail Division.

Sandra Vojnović started her banking career in 2004 as Retail Loan Analyst. In 2005, she continues her professional path working on USAID TAMP Project aimed at introducing tax system reforms in the Republic of Srpska. She joined UniCredit Bank in Banja Luka in 2006 as an analyst in Planning and Controlling Department. In 2008, she was named Head of the same Department, while in 2013 she was appointed as local CFO. Sandra Vojnović holds a University degree in Financial Management from the Faculty of Economics at the University of Banja Luka.

Nikola Vuletić started his professional career in 2003 in UniCredit Bank Serbia (Eksimbanka at the time), as Account Manager in Retail Division. Next year he moved to the same position, but within Corporate Division. After the merger between HVB Bank and Eksimbanka he was appointed as Financial Analyst. He continued his career within Large Corporate Department where he was promoted, in 2007, into Head of Mid Market Department. After two years he was appointed as Head of Sales in Retail Division, while in 2012 he takes over the responsibilities of Head of Retail Division. Nikola holds a University Degree in International Management at Faculty of Economics.

In relation to these two appointments, Csilla Ihasz, President of UniCredit Bank Serbia Management Board stated: 'I am very proud that our Management Board has been additionally reinforced by two new members who, besides profound knowledge and expertise, also mark excellent results in their areas of business. I am convinced that both Sandra, thanks to her longtime experience in the CFO area and her capability to quickly adapt to the needs of local markets, and Nikola, who has an excellent knowledge not only of the bank, but of the overall banking market, represent significant reinforcement for our team.”
