Application for the 5th Belgrade Young Economists Prize opened until April 25th

The call for papers for the Belgrade Young Economists Prize is open until April 25th. The competition aims to reward, with grant the in amount of €1,500, the best paper presented by young researchers in the field of economy and finance. The winner will be awarded by the UniCredit Foundation at the Belgrade Young Economists Conference, organised at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Belgrade, from June 23rd to 24th 2018.

The Conference has been organized since 2011 and it provides a very efficient way for a small group of advanced PhD students and recent doctoral graduates in all fields of economics and finance to present their research and obtain in-depth feedback on their work through interaction with a group of distinguished international scholars. The goal of the conference is to help young researchers polish their papers before publishing them in reputable international journals as well as build a vibrant network.
