Feza Tan appointed as Chairwoman of UniCredit Bank Serbia JSC

Following the approval by National Bank of Serbia, Feza Tan was appointed as the Chairwoman of the Management Board of UniCredit Bank Serbia JSC. She took over this position from Csilla Ihasz who continued her career outside of UniCredit.

She started her career in Turkish Yapı Kredi, member of UniCredit Group, in 1993 as Management Trainee in Corporate Credits where after two years she became Analyst in Corporate Credits. In 1997, Feza was appointed as Corporate and Project Finance Underwriting Manager where she established first project finance team in Turkey. From 2001 she was Head of Corporate and Commercial Credit Underwriting, while in 2009 she took over the position of Head of Corporate and Commercial Credit which she was leading until 2013 when she was named Head of Corporate and Investment Banking. Moreover, Feza was also a Credit Committee and Board Member in leasing and factoring companies, as well as in 3 foreign subsidiaries of Yapı Kredi. She is coming from the position of Head of Corporate and Investment Banking in Yapı Kredi Bank where she was also Executive Committee member.

Ms. Tan holds a Bachelor degree in Economics from Boğaziçi University, İstanbul and Risk Management Program Diploma from Manchester Business School.

Carlo Vivaldi, Head of UniCredit CEE Division, upon appointment has stated: „ I am convinced that Feza Tan, who gained an impressive experience during the 25 years within Yapı Kredi will quickly adapt to local market and ensure continuation of successful performance of UniCredit Bank Serbia”.
