

Press Release

Belgrade, July 17th 2019

Visa and UniCredit Banka take you to Lovefest

Lovefest, one of the best regional festivals, will host over 100 performers in Vrnjacka Banja from 1 to 3 August.

Visa and UniCredit Bank are proud partners of this event, and thanks to their partnership, fans of this festival have the opportunity to win three free tickets for Stage Experience, while users of Visa payment cards of UniCredit Bank, which as of today until July 29th purchase tickets in the Kafeterija shops across Serbia have 15 percent discounts. For users of UniCredit Bank Visa cards, a quick lane is provided at the festival itself. Just take your Visa payment card and enjoy all the benefits we have prepared for you.

If you are creative, imaginative and like to draw, think how UniCredit Bank Visa Lovefest payment card should look like and send to e mail lovekonkurs@unicreditbank.rs latest by July 26th and free tickets can be yours. More information at www.unicreditbank.rs. And that's not all, the best "love cards" will be exhibited at the joint booth of these two companies.

Those who always use payment cards from this year can be relaxed because POS terminals of UniCredit Bank at all points of Lovefest are present. Thus, apart from the Quick lane, UniCredit Bank enabled users of all payment cards the possibility of faster and easier purchase at the festival.

Among the world known names to performs at Lovefest this year are all, from techno legends with more than 30 years of career, to new and currently the most sought-after names on the electric scene. The first day of the festival, at the famous Fire Stage, will be opened by the legend of the German techno scene Richie Hawtin. Together with him on August 1, Enrico Sanguliano and Rodhad will perform, and after four years the Dutch star Joris Voorn will return to Lovefest. We must not forget that Joseph Capriati, The Martinez Brothers, Jamie Jones, Marco Carola who will also be at the festival. A famous stage dedicated to hard rock and hip-hop sounds, after two years of breaks, returns in a completely new concert format, and each of the performers, as a special announcement of his performance, recorded a special video in cooperation with Lovefest team. The new program on Live Stage on August 1st will be opened by the legends of the Yugoslav pop-rock scene Bajaga and Instruktori, and the same evening Bojana Vunturišević, one of the leading performers on the contemporary domestic pop scene will perform.

Full programe of the Lovefest is on the following link www.lovefest.rs