Belgrade, June 24th 2021

Nikola Vuletic named CEO of UniCredit Bank Serbia JSC

The Supervisory Board of UniCredit Bank Serbia JSC today approved the appointment of Nikola Vuletić as the new Chairman of the Management Board of the bank. Nikola Vuletić will formally start the position as of September 1st, 2021.

Nikola Vuletić, currently Head of Risk at UniCredit Bank Serbia, will take over the position of CEO from Feza Tan who is the identified successor for the role of Deputy CEO in UniCredit Bank Romania. In the upcoming period she will go through all the necessary steps by Bank's governing bodies, including the prior approval by the National Bank of Romania.

Teodora Petkova, Head of Eastern Europe at UniCredit, commented: "I am convinced that Nikola with his 18-year long experience in our Group within both business lines and risk, combined with in-depth knowledge of the local market, will ensure continuation of successful performance of our bank in Serbia. Having his first professional steps made in our Group and then growing and developing throughout the years is another proof of our Group's ability to recognize and nurture internal talents to take over leadership positions. I would like to thank Feza for the excellent results she delivered while leading our bank in Serbia and I am sure she will continue to excel even more in a larger market such as Romania, being equipped for giving valuable contribution to UniCredit Bank Romania and support the bank to excel even higher."

Nikola Vuletić

Nikola Vuletić has been appointed as Member of the Management Board of UniCredit Bank Serbia on January 24th 2017.
